

A Professional Development Program
for Teachers of Moloka'i

Ho'okuleana Moloka'i:

Scientific Inquiry through Environmental
Monitoring for Grades K-6

A Three Day Summer Workshop
June 23, 24, 25

Who: All K-6 Teachers on Moloka'i

When: June 23, 24, 25 8:00 AM – 3:30 PM

Where: Fishpond, Wetlands, and Tide
Pools Locations on Moloka'i

What:

- Learn Environmental Monitoring Techniques to use with Students
- Learn from Local and Off-Island Specialists About Studies Underway on the Island(s)
- Engage in Hands-on, Field-based Data Collection with 'take-home' tools.
- Gain Access to Cutting Edge Technology – “Ho'okuleana Kits” from The Digital Bus
 - MacBook with Software for Science, Global Positioning System (GPS) Handheld units, Electronic Sensors and Probes with LoggerPro Software, Digital Cameras, Digital Microscope
- Earn 3 PD Credits

REGISTER TODAY on the PDERI Website!

For more information, call Diana Papini Warren at 573-4941.

Visit the website for Ho'okuleana Year One: <http://www.dpapini.com/hookuleana/>

Funding Provided by a grant from the Maui Economic Development Board Ke Alahele Education Fund.